To
The Chief Secretary to Government,
Bangalore.

Sir,

1) Adverting to Government Notification No.9535/C [illegible].3-49-15 dated 20th January 1950,ordering the revision of certain Assistant Commissioners as Amildars,I write to state,that according to the above order,Sri D.M.Ragunatha Rao Manay who is acting as Assistant Director of employment exchange has to revert as Amildar.

2) In this connection I have to state,that Sri Manay's services were lent/~~lent~~ to this department as per Notification No.R.11175 L.R.5-40-47-2 dated 9-6-48 and he was posted as manager of the employment exchange with the rank and status of an Amildar,as the post of a full time Deputy Director of the employment exchange was abolished and the head Quarters Assistant to the Labour Commissioner was made the ex officio Deputy Director of Employment Exchange and to assist him a manager of the rank & status of an Amildar was sanctioned.

3) When Sri Manay's turn for promotion to Assistant Commissioner's post came,a recommendation was sent to Goverhment that as he gained some experience in the department,to continue him in the department alone with the rank & status of an Assistant Commissioner and the post of the manager was then converted into that of an Assistant Director.

4) It is therefore for orders whether Sri Manay has to be continued in the Department with the rank & status of an Assistant Commissioner or Amildar or he has to be sent back to Revenue Department,and the Government propose to post a separate Assistant Commissioner to this department as Assistant Director of employment exchange.

5) Meanwhile Sri Manay is being continued in the department as no other orders of Government has been received in the matter.

Yours faithfully,

Commissioner of Labour.
